

KFRM Reward Program

KFRM offers a reward to individuals who provide information that leads to the arrest and conviction of a person or persons for cattle theft under the following conditions:

One reward paid per incident or conviction.

Claim should be in writing with details of the incident, a copy of the police report documenting the claimant's contribution, date of the crime, date of the arrest, date of the conviction, and a narrative of how the claimant was involved with the arrest and conviction.

If there are multiple claimants, for the same arrest, KFRM reserves the right to divide the reward as KFRM sees fit.

All claims must be made within 6 months of conviction of the thief, or in the case of multiple thieves six months from the last conviction.

Rewards will be paid for arrest and convictions of cattle thieves in Kansas, Oklahoma, and Nebraska.

One reward will be paid for a thief's arrest but multiple rewards will not be paid for multiple count convictions.

If there are multiple thieves convicted because of a tip from a claimant, KFRM will pay only one reward.

KFRM will not pay the reward to any law enforcement person or public entity unless KFRM management deems special circumstances are apparent.

KFRM limits the reward applications and payments to 3 per calendar year.

Claimant agrees to allow their name and picture to be used by KFRM in any way they see fit in public articles, news releases, social media, and in any other venue KFRM sees fit.

Claimant agrees to provide information necessary to file IRS Form 1099 before payment will be made.

KFRM reserves the right to deny any claim they deem to be inappropriate and cancel the reward program with no notice.

All decisions on the reward payment are at the discretion of KFRM management.
